UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT
CLOWE & COWAN, INC.'S MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE OF TRIAL

The United States of America, through its attorneys, hereby responds to the Defendant's Motion for Continuance.

The United States will be prepared to go to trial on January 2, 1996, and desires to do so. If, however, the Court in its discretion determines that the ends of justice require a continuance of this trial, the government would request that any continuance not exceed 30 days.

Further, if the Court determines that, based upon the reasons set forth in Defendant's motion, and after consideration of the factors enumerated under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B), said motion should be granted, the United States requests that the Court set forth its reasons in the record of the case, together with its finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A).

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER

Pending before the Court is the Defendant Clowe & Cowan's Motion for Continuance. Having considered the Motion, the submissions on file and the applicable law, the Court determines that the Motion should be granted. Specifically, the Court has examined the Motion and determines from the reasons set forth therein that the ends of justice served by the granting of the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Motion for Continuance is GRANTED. TRIAL is set for _____ at _____.

SIGNED on this _____ day of _____, 1995.

SAM R. CUMMINGS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
